IN NEED OF A SHEPHERD

For a while it was very fashionable to own pigs as pets. The publicity surrounding these creatures informed us that they were—contrary to their popular image—very clean animals, and also quite smart. Sad to say, sheep will most likely never enjoy this sort of domestic vogue. They are neither clean nor smart and are largely defenseless when left on their own, even in large numbers. The biblical image of us as the flock of sheep is not a particularly flattering one. Sheep without a shepherd are truly sad, because they most likely will perish either from their inability to fend for themselves or from their lack of defenses against predators. Placing ourselves in the heart of this unflattering image can reinforce our faith. Until we come to a profound realization of how much we need a shepherd, we cannot appreciate how deeply blessed we are to have been given a Shepherd, one who laid down his life for us and was raised to life eternal in the Spirit, so he might guide us and we might follow him in faith forever.

SAINTS PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

May 3

Call Philip the gospel's "Answer Man." "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Nathaniel asked Philip, who had proclaimed Jesus "the one about whom Moses wrote in the law, and also the prophets" (John 1:45). Jesus asked Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" (John 6:5). Greeks brought Philip their request: "We would like to see Jesus" (John 12:21). Philip's answer to each question: bring people to Jesus! At the Last Supper, finally, Philip had a request of his own: "Show us the Father!" (John 14:8). Jesus had three last questions for Philip: "You still don't know me? How can you ask that? Don't you believe?" And an answer: "I am in the Father and the Father is in me" (John 14:10). Today's James is not John's brother, Zebedee's son, but, tradition says, author of the New Testament Letter of James, who died praying for his murderers in Jesus' words: "Forgive them, for they know not what they do." Few historical details for either saint, but lessons aplenty: Bring every question we have and everybody we meet to Jesus; be, as James' letter challenges, "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1:22).

SE NECESITA UN PASTOR

Por un tiempo estuvo de moda tener cerdos como mascotas. La publicidad que rodeó a estas criaturas nos informó que, contrario a la imagen popular, son animales muy limpios y también bastante inteligentes. Resulta triste decirlo, pero las ovejas probablemente nunca gozarán de este tipo de popularidad doméstica. Ni limpias ni inteligentes, son mayormente indefensas cuando se dejan solas, aunque el rebaño sea numeroso. La imagen bíblica de que somos un rebaño de ovejas no resulta muy favorecedora. Triste es el caso de las ovejas sin pastor porque, sin duda, perecerán dada su incapacidad de valerse por sí mismas o su carencia de defensas contra sus predadores. Colocarnos al centro de esta imagen poco favorecedora puede fortalecer nuestra fe. Sólo cuando tomamos profunda conciencia de que necesitamos un pastor, podemos apreciar nuestras bendiciones al haber sido entregados al Pastor, a aquél que dio su vida por nosotros y fue resucitado para la vida eterna en el Espíritu, a fin de poder guiarnos por siempre mientras lo seguimos en fe.

SANTOS FELIPE Y SANTIAGO (Siglo I)

3 de mayo

Felipe nació en Bastida y fue discípulo de Juan Bautista. Él mismo descubrió en la persona de Jesús al Mesías, al anunciado en el Antiguo Testamento y va a comunicarlo a los demás. Asimismo, el evangelista pone en boca de Felipe la falta de fe: 'Ni doscientos denarios (salario por un día de trabajo) bastarían para darle de comer a esta multitud'. Jesús multiplica el pan y alimenta a la multitud. Se cree que Felipe murió hacia el año 87 y sus restos fueron llevados a Roma, a la Iglesia de los Apóstoles, junto a los de Santiago, de ahí que la fiesta litúrgica sea el mismo día. Santiago "el menor" es el hijo de Alfeo y también pertenece a los Doce. Fue obispo de Jerusalén a partir del año 42, debido a la muerte de Santiago "el mayor". Fue él mismo quien escribió la carta canónica que aparece en el Nuevo Testamento. El historiador Flavio Josefo nos dice que fue martirizado en el año 62 debido a una orden de lapidación emitida por el sumo sacerdote Anás II.

K-5 and Middle School Faith Formation & Family Evangelization

May is the month of Mary...

Mary was a special gift from God. God chose Mary to be the Mother of Jesus, his Son. When the Angel Gabriel told her she would be the Mother of Jesus, he said, "Blessed are you!" Mary is also the Mother of the Church. That means that she is our Mother, too. Because Jesus is God, we call Mary "Mother of God." The Hail Mary is the most well-known prayer about the Mother of God. We pray the Hail Mary when we pray the Rosary.

One of Mary's titles is the Theotokos, which means "Bearer of God." She was with the Apostles when the Holy Spirit descended at Pentecost. Mary is considered the greatest of all Saints and also the first disciple. Because she said "yes" to God and became the Mother of his Son, Jesus, all people have been saved from the power of sin and everlasting death. Mary is our great role model in the Church. She reminds us to serve all and say "yes" to God's plan for our lives.

Middle School Activity

Mary was the first disciple of Jesus because she was the first person to know that he was the Messiah. Throughout her life, she encouraged and helped others to follow him as well. By learning about the life of Mary, we learn what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Read one of the following stories from the Gospels:

The Visitation (Luke 1:39–56)

The Visit from the Shepherds (Luke 2:8–20)

The Wedding at Cana (John 2:1–11)

The Crucifixion of Jesus (John 19:26–27)

Reflect on the story you read. Ask yourself:

*What does this story tell me about Mary?

*What does Mary show me about being a disciple of Jesus? Once you have your answers, please submit them to kat@scachurh.org

K-5 Activity

This is the month of May and we celebrate it as the month of Mary, Jesus Christ mother. Practice the Hail Mary with your family.

K-5 & Middle School Calendar

Until further notice all faith formation assignments will be sent via Flocknote email.

HIGH SCHOOL FAITH FORMATION

High School Youth

We are in the third week of our 4 week series on discipleship for teens through FORMED. For this week, log onto: <https://watch.formed.org/ydisciple/season:1/videos/the-cost> Watch the video and answer the questions provided below. Please submit your responses through google classroom by 5/1/20

The questions are listed below:

FORMED
The Catholic Faith on Demand

- >What is one thing that stood out to you?
- >Nick talked about brokenness in the world. What are some examples of brokenness you see around you?
- > There was a story of a man named G.K. Chesterton writing that he was what is wrong with the world. How do we contribute to what is wrong with the world?
- >Nick talks about how Jesus said to people, “Your sins are forgiven.” Can we experience this mercy today? How?
- >He also said that Jesus offers freedom. Does this align with how you think of God? If not, what is different?
- >Take a moment and think about your answer. On a scale of 1-10, how satisfied with your current relationship with God? (1 being not satisfied, 10 being perfectly satisfied)

High School Calendar

Until further notice all faith formation assignments will be sent via Flocknote email.

Remember to check google classroom for your weekly assignments. If you have any issues with logging in or seeing the assignment, etc. please let me know so that I can assist you.

This is method that we will use for you to submit all of your assignments for the last few weeks of our faith formation year. Thank you

May is the month that we celebrate our mothers and what better month to celebrate Mary (pictured left). We do not worship Mary, because we believe that only God should be worshipped. However, we do venerate her, which means we pray to her and respect her acceptance of God's will by willingly giving birth to Jesus.
