A Prayer for All Women on Mother's Day

Lord, we praise you when we think about the sacrifice and love given to us by our mothers. Thank you for the mother who gave birth to us, the one who adopted us, and the one(s) who mentored us along the path of life. We show gratitude to the mother who held our hands, stood by our sides, and cheered us on, drove us to every practice, had food on the table, and gave us her shoulder to cry on.

With gratitude, we lift up the moms who did their best, who made mistakes, let us see them cry, and for those who were tougher on us than we would have preferred. O, the strength, tenacity, resilience, independence, and perseverance we learned from both these blessings and from these challenges.

Extending glory, honor, and praise to you, O Lord, for the young teenage mom who was not yet planning to become a mom, but had the courage to make a difficult choice to present the child for adoption in hopes of a better life.

Next, we thank you, Lord, for the mother who surrendered and entrusted her child to another parent for adoption, grant her peace.

And for the one whose child did not live to take a breath or left the earth too soon, we pray for comfort that only comes from knowing Jesus.

Sweet and loving, Lord, for those who are struggling with guilt, shame, and feelings of not being enough, we claim your healing redemption upon their lives.

Lord, we lift up to you the women who yearn to have a child and struggle with infertility or difficulties of carrying a baby to term. Comfort them as only you can. Fill them with your love and peace, help them to feel completed by your grace and mercy.

Wrap your arms around the girls and women who no longer have their mother here on earth. This day can also be a painful reminder of the grief and loss in noticing the absence of our moms. Bless these women with a touch from you reassuring them of your presence.

In Jesus' Holy Name, Amen.

The St. Catherine's Social Ministry would like to thank all church parishioners and families for their support at our recent Taco lunch event on April 30, 2023. The Social Ministry is also very appreciative to parishioner Celina Benon who donated the delicious meat from her business "LA LA TACOS". We also want to thank Ron Castro, Mike Herrera and John Ybarra for their help in preparing the food. A big THANK YOU to all the volunteers who helped make the lunch event a great success !

SAVE THE DATE- May 20th, 2023

Come One, Come All! On May 20th St Vincent de Paul will hold its 6th annual "Walk-A-Thon" at St. Jeanne de Lestonnac School. This year's theme will be "Walk A Mile In My Shoes". The goal of the walk is to raise money for the SVDP food pantry. SVDP serves over 70 local families in need each week and assists with other financial needs. Although we receive generous donations from area markets and parishioners, it is never sufficient to take care of the entire need. The ministry must purchase items on a weekly basis and we need the funds to take care of these expenses. So please mark your calendars for May 20th, 2023 @ 8am. Walk registration will take place after Mass the weekends of May 6 & 7 and May 13 & 14. This is an excellent family activity, so bring the kids! We hope you will join us to raise money for the less fortunate in our community. For more information please contact Raquel Anthony at 951-699-6750, or by email at anthonys4christ@gmail.com
