Signs of hope

7. In addition to finding hope in God's grace, we are also called to discover hope in the signs of the times that the Lord gives us. As the Second Vatican Council observed: "In every age, the Church has the responsibility of reading the signs of the times and interpreting them in the light of the Gospel. In this way, in language adapted to every generation, she can respond to people's persistent questions about the meaning of this present life and of the life to come, and how one is related to the other". [4] We need to recognize the immense goodness present in our world, lest we be tempted to think ourselves overwhelmed by evil and violence. The signs of the times, which include the yearning of human hearts in need of God's saving presence, ought to become signs of hope.

Signos de esperanza

7. Además de alcanzar la esperanza que nos da la gracia de Dios, también estamos llamados a redescubirla en los signos de los tiempos que el Señor nos ofrece. Como afirma el Concilio Vaticano II, «es deber permanente de la Iglesia escrutar a fondo los signos de la época e interpretarlos a la luz del Evangelio, de forma que, acomodándose a cada generación, pueda la Iglesia responder a los perennes interrogantes de la humanidad sobre el sentido de la vida presente y de la vida futura y sobre la mutua relación de ambas». [4] Por ello, es necesario poner atención a todo lo bueno que hay en el mundo para no caer en la tentación de considerarnos superados por el mal y la violencia. En este sentido, los signos de los tiempos, que contienen el anhelo del corazón humano, necesitado de la presencia salvífica de Dios, requieren ser transformados en signos de esperanza.

8. The first sign of hope should be the desire for peace in our world, which once more finds itself immersed in the tragedy of war. Heedless of the horrors of the past, humanity is confronting yet another ordeal, as many peoples are prey to brutality and violence. What does the future hold for those peoples, who have already endured so much? How is it possible that their desperate plea for help is not motivating world leaders to resolve the numerous regional conflicts in view of their possible consequences at the global level? Is it too much to dream that arms can fall silent and cease to rain down destruction and death? May the Jubilee remind us that those who are peacemakers will be called “children of God” (Mt 5:9). The need for peace challenges us all, and demands that concrete steps be taken. May diplomacy be tireless in its commitment to seek, with courage and creativity, every opportunity to undertake negotiations aimed at a lasting peace.

8. Que el primer signo de esperanza se traduzca en paz para el mundo, el cual vuelve a encontrarse sumergido en la tragedia de la guerra. La humanidad, desmemoriada de los dramas del pasado, está sometida a una prueba nueva y difícil cuando ve a muchas poblaciones oprimidas por la brutalidad de la violencia. ¿Qué más les queda a estos pueblos que no hayan sufrido ya? ¿Cómo es posible que su grito desesperado de auxilio no impulse a los responsables de las Naciones a querer poner fin a los numerosos conflictos regionales, conscientes de las consecuencias que puedan derivarse a nivel mundial? ¿Es demasiado soñar que las armas callen y dejen de causar destrucción y muerte? Dejemos que el Jubileo nos recuerde que los que «trabajan por la paz» podrán ser «llamados hijos de Dios» (Mt 5,9). La exigencia de paz nos interpela a todos y urge que se lleven a cabo proyectos concretos. Que no falte el compromiso de la diplomacia por construir con valentía y creatividad espacios de negociación orientados a una paz duradera.

FAREWELL FR. ANTHONY DI LEO!

On June 16, our beloved former pastor and one of the men responsible for our church being built, Fr. Anthony Di Leo, moved to San Diego to reside in an assisted living facility. He is almost 95 years old and is in need of a little more care and company. The above picture on the left was taken at the breakfast for him after the Mass of Thanksgiving for him on June 16, 2025. Sitting with him is Fr. Timothy, our current pastor, and Msgr. Lopez, the Vicar General for the Diocese. And Fr. Anthony, of course. The next picture is with his friend, Fr. Gino Galley, at the facility where he is now residing. We pray for him and wish him the best! He is an amazing man and he will be missed!

Ladies of Our Parish!

We warmly Welcome You to join our Women's Guild Ministry!

This year, we are looking forward to a wonderful calendar filled with fun, activities, love, charitable outreach, and meaningful fellowship.

Come be a part of this vibrant community of loving women!

Saint Catherine of Alexandria Women's Guild was established in 1993 for the purpose of promoting Spiritual, Social, and Service opportunities for the women of the parish, 18 years of age and older. The Women's Guild meets monthly, on the 3rd Thursday of the month, for the purpose of prayer, fellowship, and fundraising. Our monthly meetings include activities that provide many opportunities for its members to meet new women of the parish, renew friendships, and participate in the active life of the parish.

Fundraising funds collected during the year go towards fulfilling the financial needs of the Parish, charitable organizations within our ministries and the community.

Thank you and may God Bless you!

Dear Families,

On our journey of catechesis, we want to remind you that faith is not only taught in classrooms, but lived and strengthened at home, in everyday life. As parents, you are the first witnesses of God's love for your children.

How can we grow in faith as a family?

1. Pray together: Family prayer, even if brief, unites hearts and opens the soul to God. A prayer upon waking, before meals, or at bedtime can make a big difference.
2. Listen to God's Word: Reading a Gospel passage together each week and talking about it helps us get to know Jesus better and apply His teachings.
3. Participate in the Eucharist: Attending Sunday Mass together is the heart of Christian life. There we find strength, unity, and meaning.
4. Live with love and forgiveness: Teaching forgiveness, helping others, and sharing—by example—is a way to teach faith through daily living.
5. Learn together: Use moments like catechism as opportunities to grow as a family. Ask questions, explore together, and discover the deeper meaning of our faith.

Faith is a gift, but also a responsibility. Let us walk together, as families and community, on this beautiful path of growing in God's love.
