Mission Statement

By promoting the teachings of Jesus, St. Catherine of Alexandria welcomes all people to share in our blessed sacraments to strengthen and inspire our faith, to bring all closer in relationship to Jesus and creating friendship and unity in ethnic groups and committees as we walk in His footsteps daily.

La declaración de la misión

Al promover las enseñanzas de Jesús, Santa Catalina de Alejandría da la bienvenida a todas las personas a compartir nuestros santos sacramentos para fortalecer e inspirar nuestra fe, para acercar a todos a Jesús y crear una amistad y unidad en grupos étnicos y comités mientras caminamos en sus pasos todos los días.

WORDS FROM OUR SHEPHERD

FR. TIMOTHY

How Many Times Can a Catholic Receive Holy Communion in One Day?

One of the questions I am occasionally asked is, “Father, how many times may I receive Holy Communion in one day?” Behind this question I often hear something beautiful: a sincere love for Jesus in the Eucharist and a desire to be as close to Him as possible.

The Holy Eucharist is the greatest gift we have. At every Mass, Jesus gives us not a symbol or a memory, but His very Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. Because this gift is so sacred, the Church gives us loving guidance so that we may approach the altar with reverence and devotion rather than out of habit or routine.

The Church teaches in Canon 917: “A person who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist may receive it a second time on the same day only within a Eucharistic celebration in which the person participates.”

In practical terms, this means that a Catholic may receive Holy Communion once during a Mass in which he or she participates, and may receive a second time if attending another Mass later that same day. Ordinarily, we do not receive Holy Communion more than twice in one day.

Some may wonder why the Church places this limit. The answer is not because the Church wants to keep us from Jesus. Quite the opposite. The Church desires to protect our sense of wonder before so great a mystery. The Eucharist is not about counting how many times we receive Our Lord, but about opening our hearts more fully each time we do.

I often remind people that one worthy Holy Communion can change a life. One sincere encounter with Christ in the Eucharist can bring peace to an anxious heart, strength to a weary soul, forgiveness to a sinner, and hope to someone carrying a heavy cross. Grace is not measured by quantity but by the depth of our love and our openness to God's work within us.

Priests follow a different discipline because of their unique role in celebrating the Eucharist. A priest normally celebrates one Mass each day, though pastoral needs may require him to celebrate two or even three Masses on Sundays or major feasts. Each time he celebrates Mass, he receives Holy Communion because he acts in persona Christi—in the person of Christ—offering the Eucharistic sacrifice on behalf of God's people.

Liturgical ministers, however, follow the same discipline as the rest of the lay faithful. Even if a minister serves at several Masses in one day, he or she may ordinarily receive Holy Communion only twice. Serving at multiple Masses is a beautiful gift of service to the parish community, but it does not change the Church's practice regarding the reception of Communion.

Ultimately, the Church's teaching is not about restriction but about reverence. The Eucharist is not something to be multiplied; it is a mystery to be treasured. What matters most is not how often we receive Jesus, but how well we prepare for Him, how deeply we believe in His presence, and how fully we allow Him to transform our lives.

Every time we come forward to receive Holy Communion, may we do so with the faith and humility of the centurion who prayed, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.”

May our love for the Eucharist continue to grow, and may every Holy Communion draw us closer to the heart of Christ.

PALABRAS DE NUESTRO PASTOR

PADRE TIMOTHY

¿Cuántas veces puede un católico recibir la Sagrada Comunión en un solo día?

Una de las preguntas que ocasionalmente me hacen es: “Padre, ¿cuántas veces puedo recibir la Sagrada Comunión en un mismo día?” Detrás de esta pregunta, con frecuencia percibo algo hermoso: un amor sincero a Jesús en la Eucaristía y el deseo de estar lo más cerca posible de Él. La Sagrada Eucaristía es el regalo más grande que tenemos. En cada Misa, Jesús nos entrega no un símbolo ni un recuerdo, sino su verdadero Cuerpo y Sangre, Alma y Divinidad. Precisamente porque este don es tan sagrado, la Iglesia nos ofrece una guía amorosa para que nos acerquemos al altar con reverencia y devoción, y no simplemente por costumbre o rutina.

La Iglesia enseña en el Canon 917: “Quien ya ha recibido la Santísima Eucaristía puede recibirla una segunda vez el mismo día solamente dentro de una celebración eucarística en la que participe.”

En términos prácticos, esto significa que un católico puede recibir la Sagrada Comunión una vez durante una Misa en la que participa y puede recibirla una segunda vez si asiste a otra Misa ese mismo día. Ordinariamente, no se recibe la Sagrada Comunión más de dos veces en un día.

Algunos podrían preguntarse por qué la Iglesia establece este límite. La respuesta no es porque la Iglesia quiera alejarnos de Jesús. Todo lo contrario. La Iglesia desea proteger nuestro sentido de asombro y reverencia ante un misterio tan grande. La Eucaristía no se trata de contar cuántas veces recibimos al Señor, sino de abrir nuestro corazón más plenamente cada vez que lo recibimos.

Con frecuencia recuerdo a las personas que una sola Comunión recibida dignamente puede cambiar una vida. Un solo encuentro sincero con Cristo en la Eucaristía puede traer paz a un corazón angustiado, fortaleza a un alma cansada, perdón al pecador y esperanza a quien carga una cruz pesada. La gracia no se mide por la cantidad, sino por la profundidad de nuestro amor y nuestra apertura a la acción de Dios en nosotros.

Los sacerdotes siguen una disciplina diferente debido a su función particular en la celebración de la Eucaristía. Normalmente, un sacerdote celebra una Misa al día, aunque las necesidades pastorales pueden requerir que celebre dos o incluso tres Misas los domingos o en las grandes solemnidades. Cada vez que celebra la Misa, el sacerdote recibe la Sagrada Comunión porque actúa in persona Christi, es decir, en la persona de Cristo, ofreciendo el sacrificio eucarístico en nombre del pueblo de Dios.

Los ministros litúrgicos, sin embargo, siguen la misma disciplina que el resto de los fieles laicos. Aunque un ministro sirva en varias Misas durante el mismo día, ordinariamente puede recibir la Sagrada Comunión solamente dos veces. Servir en varias celebraciones es un hermoso acto de entrega y servicio a la comunidad parroquial, pero no cambia la práctica de la Iglesia respecto a la recepción de la Comunión.

En definitiva, la enseñanza de la Iglesia no trata de restricciones, sino de reverencia. La Eucaristía no es algo que deba multiplicarse, sino un misterio que debe ser atesorado. Lo más importante no es cuántas veces recibimos a Jesús, sino cómo nos preparamos para recibirlo, cuán profundamente creemos en su presencia y cuánto permitimos que transforme nuestra vida.

Cada vez que nos acercamos a recibir la Sagrada Comunión, hagámoslo con la fe y la humildad del centurión que dijo: “Señor, no soy digno de que entres en mi casa, pero una palabra tuya bastará para sanarme”.

Que nuestro amor por la Eucaristía siga creciendo y que cada Comunión nos acerque más al corazón de Cristo.

COURTYARD PATIO PROJECT UPDATE

We are grateful to share some exciting news regarding our Courtyard Patio Project. After much prayer, planning, and collaboration, we have received the Diocese's approval to move forward with this much-anticipated project. The engineering plans have now been submitted to the City of Temecula, and we are currently awaiting their final approval. If all proceeds as expected, we anticipate receiving approval soon, with construction beginning in September. In preparation for this exciting next step, Jim Armijo, together with members of our Works of Mercy Ministry, will begin carefully dismantling the existing courtyard patio during the last week of August. We are deeply grateful to everyone who has supported this project through your prayers, encouragement, and generosity. We look forward to providing a welcoming, shaded gathering space that will serve our parish family and ministries for many years to come.

NEW CHURCH EXIT PROJECT UPDATE

We are pleased to provide an update on our New Church Exit Project. We continue to work closely with Temecula Engineering Consultants, Inc. as we develop the necessary site plans for submission to the City of Temecula Engineering Department. Their engineering team has been instrumental in preparing both a comprehensive site plan for the proposed exit and a precise grading plan that will help move the project forward. As part of the next phase, we are currently evaluating proposals from two qualified geotechnical firms—UES Professional Services, Inc. and Geo Tek CA, Inc.—to complete a geotechnical report for the project site, which will be included in our submission to the City. We are grateful for your continued prayers, patience, and support as we work diligently through each step of the planning and approval process. We look forward to sharing additional updates as this important project continues to progress.

Whether you donate in person at Mass or the parish office, by mail or online, we would like to thank you all for your continued financial support and prayers. Our parish remains alive and vibrant because of your generosity of time, talent and treasure. Please prayerfully consider including St. Catherine of Alexandria, Temecula in your will.

May God bless each and every one of you.

SUNDAY EVENING MASS TIME CHANGING

After a period of prayerful discernment and consultation, Father Timothy has decided to change the Sunday evening Mass time from 5:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. This decision was made after seeking input from our clergy, the parish advisory committee, and the ministers who faithfully serve at the Sunday evening Mass. The new Mass time will take effect beginning Sunday, August 2nd.

Después de un período de oración, discernimiento y consulta, el Padre Timothy ha decidido cambiar el horario de la Misa dominical de la tarde de las 5:00 p. m. a las 4:00 p. m. Esta decisión se tomó después de solicitar la opinión de nuestro clero, del comité consultivo parroquial y de los ministros que sirven fielmente en la Misa dominical de la tarde.

El nuevo horario de la Misa entrará en vigor a partir del domingo 2 de agosto.

What would you like us to pray for?

Join us on July 27 at 6:00 PM in Di Leo Hall for our next Walk to Emmaus presentation.

WORLD DAY OF GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

"I will never forget you."

Isaiah 49:16

The 2026 World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly is celebrated globally on Sunday, July 26, coinciding with the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. In the United States, it will be celebrated on the weekend of September 12-13, aligning with National Grandparents Day.

The official theme for the 2026 observance is "I will never forget you" (Isaiah 49:15). Established by the Vatican, the day highlights the value of older adults and encourages communities to fight isolation by actively cherishing their elderly members.

Praying for one another is an important tradition in our Catholic faith communities. Here we list those who are presently in need of prayers, either for healing and restored health or for the peaceful repose of the souls of those who have recently passed into eternal life. In order to keep the information current, we will list the names submitted for two weeks only. If the need still exists for the listing of those who are ill, please give us a call or send an email and we will gladly include the name again. To contact us, please call Mary Hitzeman in the Parish Office at 951-676-8136, or send an email to mhitzeman@sbdiocese.org.

Orar unos por otros es una tradición importante en nuestras comunidades de fe católica. Aquí presentamos a quienes actualmente necesitan oraciones, ya sea por sanación y recuperación de la salud o por el eterno descanso de quienes han fallecido recientemente y han pasado a la vida eterna.

Para mantener la información actualizada, incluiremos los nombres enviados por dos semanas solamente. Si aún existe la necesidad de mantener en la lista a quienes están enfermos, por favor llámenos o envíenos un correo electrónico y con gusto incluiremos el nombre nuevamente.

Para comunicarse con nosotros, por favor llame a Mary Hitzeman en la Oficina Parroquial al 951-676-8136, o envíe un correo electrónico a mhitzeman@sbdiocese.org

FAITH FORMATION

FAITH FORMATION VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Do you have a few hours to spare each week? We are looking for caring and reliable individuals who are willing to share their time and talents in the Faith Formation Office. Your help will make a difference in serving our parish families and supporting the faith journey of our children and youth. If you feel called to volunteer, please contact the Faith Formation Office at 951 387-5794

Faith into Action Challenge

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the Kingdom of Heaven is the greatest treasure we can ever find. This week, make Christ your priority by setting aside time each day for prayer, reading a passage from Scripture, or performing an act of kindness without expecting anything in return. Look for the "hidden treasures" God places in your life each day. Take any opportunity to forgive, serve, encourage, or show compassion. As a family, talk about what treasures matter most and pray together, asking God to help you seek His Kingdom above all else.

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field... He sells all that he has and buys that field." (Matthew 13:44)

When we place God first, we discover the true treasure that fills our hearts with lasting joy.

Saints of the Week

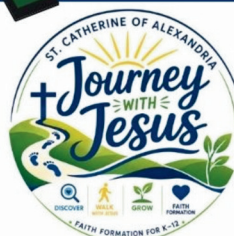

Saints Joachim & Anne

Honoring Saints Joachim and Anne, the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the grandparents of Jesus Christ. Their lives remind us of the importance of faith, family, and passing God's love from one generation to the next. Saint Anne is the patron saint of grandparents, grandmothers, mothers, expectant mothers, homemakers, carpenters, seamstresses, Canada, and France. She is also invoked for couples struggling with infertility, those experiencing poverty, and for finding lost items. Saint Joachim is the patron saint of grandparents, grandfathers, fathers, married couples, cabinetmakers, and linen traders.
