Words from our Shepherd

The meaning of the colors of the priests' chasubles (vestments)

Purple, the color of repentance, and expectation, is used during Lent and Advent. In some countries, purple is also used in Mass and liturgical prayers for the deceased. (Before the Second Vatican Council, black was used.)

Red is the color of blood and fire and is used on Good Friday, the Feast of the Holy Spirit (Pentecost), in the celebrations of the Passion of the Lord, in the veneration of the Apostolic saints, the Gospel historians and in the veneration of the martyrs.

White (which can be replaced with gold or Ivory) evokes purity, especially the glory of God, reserved for liturgical rites and Masses of Easter and Christmas. White also used in reverences and remembrance of the Lord, the feasts of Our Lady, the angels and the saints who are not martyrs. White also expresses Christ's Resurrection, as well as our later resurrection. At the heavenly banquet table, the chosen ones are all dressed in white (see Revelation 7:9).

Green is used in Masses during Ordinary Time. Green is the color of hope and of life. When we see the priest ascending to the altar in green vestments, it makes us think that we are a people of great hope, a chosen group of people that is being led by Christ to the green meadows of the promised land.

Pink is used twice a year (third Sunday of Advent and fourth Sunday of Lent) and is to invite believers to enjoy secret joy and peace in anticipation of the Savior or in preparation for the resurrection of Christ.

Palabras de nuestro Pastor

El significado de los colores de las casullas (vestiduras) de los sacerdotes

Morado, color del arrepentimiento, la penitencia y la espera, se usa durante el Adviento y la Cuaresma. En algunos países también se usa el morado en las Misas y oraciones litúrgicas por los difuntos (antes del Concilio Vaticano II, se usaba el color negro).

Rojo es el color de la sangre y del fuego, y se utiliza el Viernes Santo, en la Fiesta del Espíritu Santo, en las celebraciones de la Pasión del Señor, en la veneración de los santos apóstoles, los evangelistas y los mártires.

Blanco (que puede ser reemplazado por dorado o marfil) evoca la pureza, especialmente la gloria de Dios, y está reservado para los ritos litúrgicos y las Misas de Pascua y Navidad. También se utiliza en las celebraciones del Señor, en las fiestas de la Virgen María, los ángeles y los santos que no son mártires. El blanco también expresa la resurrección de Cristo y nuestra resurrección futura. En el banquete celestial, los elegidos están todos vestidos de blanco (ver Apocalipsis 7,9).

Verde se usa en las Misas del Tiempo Ordinario. El verde es el color de la esperanza y de la vida. Cuando vemos al sacerdote subir al altar con vestiduras verdes, pensamos que somos un pueblo lleno de esperanza, un grupo elegido que es guiado por Cristo hacia los prados verdes de la tierra prometida.

Rosa se usa dos veces al año (el tercer domingo de Adviento y el cuarto domingo de Cuaresma) para invitar a los creyentes a experimentar una alegría y paz interior, en anticipación del Salvador o en preparación para la resurrección de Cristo.

St. Catherine's reached our 2025 DDF goal!

Thank you so much to all donors who contributed this year. We appreciate your help in building the church community!

Now that we've reached our annual goal, all contributions to DDF on top of the goal amount will come back to the parish assessment/tax-free! The surplus funds will be used for the Religious Education program, PMFP (Parish Ministers Formation Program) participation for volunteers, Youth and Young Adults Ministries, new landscaping, fixing the air ducts in the L building and the Wagner building, and maintenance of the church and buildings.

Please prayerfully discern and consider being good stewards of God's blessings. If you have been contributing to DDF, thank you! Please continue supporting the 2025 DDF. If you have not started, it's not too late! Please give via DDF envelopes or online.

¡Santa Catalina alcanzó su meta del DDF para 2025!

Muchas gracias a todos los donantes que contribuyeron este año. ¡Agradecemos su ayuda para fortalecer la comunidad de la iglesia!

Ahora que hemos alcanzado nuestra meta anual, todas las contribuciones al DDF, además del monto objetivo, se destinarán a la parroquia sin impuestos. Los fondos excedentes se utilizarán para el programa de educación religiosa, la participación de voluntarios en el PMFP (Programa de Formación de Ministros Parroquiales), el Ministerio de Jóvenes y Adultos Jóvenes, la renovación de jardines, reparación de conductos de aire en los edificios L y Fr. Wagner, y el mantenimiento de la iglesia y los edificios.

Por favor, discernan con oración y consideren ser buenos administradores de las bendiciones de Dios. Si han estado contribuyendo al DDF, ¡gracias! Continúen apoyando el DDF para 2025. Si aún no lo han hecho, ¡no es tarde! Donen a través de los sobres del DDF o en línea.

10. During the Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind. I think of prisoners who, deprived of their freedom, daily feel the harshness of detention and its restrictions, lack of affection and, in more than a few cases, lack of respect for their persons. I propose that in this Jubilee Year governments undertake initiatives aimed at restoring hope; forms of amnesty or pardon meant to help individuals regain confidence in themselves and in society; and programmes of reintegration in the community, including a concrete commitment to respect for law.

10. En el Año jubilar estamos llamados a ser signos tangibles de esperanza para tantos hermanos y hermanas que viven en condiciones de penuria. Pienso en los presos que, privados de la libertad, experimentan cada día — además de la dureza de la reclusión— el vacío afectivo, las restricciones impuestas y, en bastantes casos, la falta de respeto. Propongo a los gobiernos del mundo que en el Año del Jubileo se asuman iniciativas que devuelvan la esperanza; formas de amnistía o de condonación de la pena orientadas a ayudar a las personas para que recuperen la confianza en sí mismas y en la sociedad; itinerarios de reinserción en la comunidad a los que corresponda un compromiso concreto en la observancia de las leyes.
