Mission Statement

By promoting the teachings of Jesus, St. Catherine of Alexandria welcomes all people to share in our blessed sacraments to strengthen and inspire our faith, to bring all closer in relationship to Jesus and creating friendship and unity in ethnic groups and committees as we walk in His footsteps daily.

La declaración de la misión

Al promover las enseñanzas de Jesús, Santa Catalina de Alejandría da la bienvenida a todas las personas a compartir nuestros santos sacramentos para fortalecer e inspirar nuestra fe, para acercar a todos a Jesús y crear una amistad y unidad en grupos étnicos y comités mientras caminamos en sus pasos todos los días.

WORDS FROM OUR SHEPHERD

FR. TIMOTHY

THE MEANING BEHIND DIFFERENT TYPES OF CHURCHES

The Catholic Church uses several specific terms to describe its places of worship, and the distinctions between them often relate to their status, function, and hierarchical importance rather than just physical size or architectural style. Here is a breakdown of the differences between a parish, a cathedral, a basilica, and a shrine.

A parish is the most common type of church and serves as the fundamental building block of the Catholic community. It is a specific territorial area within a diocese, led by a parish priest, and established to meet the spiritual needs of the local Catholic population. Parishes offer regular Masses, sacraments (baptism, marriage, confession), religious education, and community outreach programs. Every Catholic is typically a member of a specific parish based on their geographical location. It is where daily Catholic life takes place.

A cathedral holds a unique and central role in a diocese (a region overseen by a bishop). The key feature that defines a cathedral is the presence of the cathedra—the bishop's official chair or throne, which symbolizes his teaching authority and leadership. The cathedral serves as the "mother church" of the entire diocese. Major diocesan liturgical celebrations, ordinations of priests, and other significant events presided over by the bishop take place here. The cathedral is the specific church from which the bishop governs his diocese. While it functions as a parish for its local community, its primary significance lies in its role as the bishop's principal church.

A basilica is a title of honor bestowed by the Pope upon a church of particular historical, architectural, or spiritual significance. It is not a functional classification like a parish or a cathedral, but a special designation that grants certain ceremonial privileges and signifies a closer link to the Holy See and the Pope. The designation recognizes the building's importance as a center of worship or a significant pilgrimage site. All basilicas are churches, but not all churches are basilicas. A cathedral can also be a basilica.

A shrine is a church or sacred place designated as a site of special pilgrimage or devotion. The focus of a shrine is a specific object, image, or event that inspires veneration—for example, a statue of the Virgin Mary, a relic of a saint, or the site of a reported miracle. Shrines are dedicated to fostering prayer and devotion. They do not necessarily serve a local parish community in the same regular capacity, although many do. Shrines can be designated at the diocesan, national, or international level by the respective bishops' conference or the Holy See. The primary purpose is to draw people to a specific devotional practice.

PALABRAS DE NUESTRO PASTOR PADRE TIMOTHY

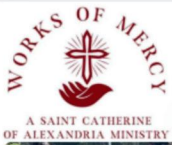

La Iglesia Católica utiliza varios términos específicos para describir sus lugares de culto, y las diferencias entre ellos a menudo se relacionan con su estatus, función e importancia jerárquica, más que con el tamaño físico o el estilo arquitectónico. Aquí tienes una explicación de las diferencias entre una parroquia, una catedral, una basílica y un santuario.

Una parroquia es el tipo más común de iglesia y sirve como el fundamento básico de la comunidad católica. Es un área territorial específica dentro de una diócesis, dirigida por un párroco y establecida para atender las necesidades espirituales de la población católica local. Las parroquias ofrecen misas regulares, sacramentos (bautismo, matrimonio, confesión), educación religiosa y programas de ayuda comunitaria. Normalmente, cada católico pertenece a una parroquia específica según su ubicación geográfica. Es donde se desarrolla la vida cotidiana católica.

Una catedral tiene un papel único y central dentro de una diócesis (una región bajo la autoridad de un obispo). La característica clave que define una catedral es la presencia de la cátedra, la silla o trono oficial del obispo, que simboliza su autoridad de enseñanza y liderazgo. La catedral sirve como la “iglesia madre” de toda la diócesis. Aquí se llevan a cabo las principales celebraciones litúrgicas diocesanas, ordenaciones de sacerdotes y otros eventos importantes presididos por el obispo. La catedral es la iglesia específica desde donde el obispo gobierna su diócesis. Aunque funciona como parroquia para su comunidad local, su importancia principal radica en su función como iglesia principal del obispo.

Una basílica es un título de honor otorgado por el Papa a una iglesia de particular importancia histórica, arquitectónica o espiritual. No es una clasificación funcional como una parroquia o una catedral, sino una designación especial que otorga ciertos privilegios ceremoniales y significa un vínculo más estrecho con la Santa Sede y el Papa. Esta designación reconoce la importancia del edificio como centro de culto o como un sitio significativo de peregrinación. Todas las basílicas son iglesias, pero no todas las iglesias son basílicas. Una catedral también puede ser una basílica.

Un santuario es una iglesia o lugar sagrado designado como sitio de peregrinación o devoción especial. El enfoque de un santuario es un objeto, imagen o evento específico que inspira veneración — por ejemplo, una estatua de la Virgen María, una reliquia de un santo o el lugar de un milagro. Los santuarios están dedicados a fomentar la oración y la devoción. No necesariamente sirven a una comunidad parroquial local de manera regular, aunque muchos sí lo hacen. Los santuarios pueden ser designados a nivel diocesano, nacional o internacional por la conferencia episcopal correspondiente o la Santa Sede. Su propósito principal es atraer a las personas a una práctica devocional específica.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 16, 2026
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 15:21-28

Does God ignore or act a bit rough with you? Jesus crosses the border into the pagan region of Tyre and Sidon, the territory long outside the covenant. There, a Canaanite woman calls out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David.” At first, he is silent. Then he rebuffs her. “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” But the Church Fathers saw this not as an insult but as an initiation.

Christ draws out of her heart a deeper faith.

She presses on. “Please, Lord, even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Jesus’ silence and response solidify her humility and trust. She thus becomes a model for prayer for centuries of Christians. St. Augustine said she shows how sinners come to grace by moving from silence to humility to perseverance.

This woman is the Church. She is you and me. She is every soul who dares to cry out from the margins, who endures divine silence until it turns to compassion. When Jesus says, “O woman, great is your faith,” it is the joyful cry of God discovering faith where the world least expects it. Even the smallest crumb of Your mercy, Lord, is enough to heal the soul. Do we have the courage to show faith like that?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

16 de agosto de 2026

XX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Mateo 15:21-28

“Los llevaré a mi cerro santo y haré que se sientan felices en mi Casa de oración” (Isaías 56:7). Es decir, Dios acepta a todas las personas, sin distinción de raza o nación. Existen muchas personas que son maltratadas, humilladas o perseguidas, e incluso asesinadas, por su forma de pensar y de actuar en el ámbito social o político. En ocasiones, la persecución se da incluso dentro de la familia, tan solo por pensar diferente. ¿Qué nos pide Dios ante todo esto? ¿Qué opinas del mensaje de Jesús a través de su Palabra?

El Evangelio de hoy es una catequesis sobre la aceptación de todas las personas, a partir del ejemplo de la mujer cananea que buscaba en Jesús compasión para ella y para su hija. Aunque pueda resultar difícil de comprender, Dios no actúa como el ser humano: no es egoísta y está para todos. El diálogo entre Jesús y la mujer así lo demuestra. Por eso Él le dice: “Mujer, ¡qué grande es tu fe! Que se cumpla tu deseo”. Y en aquel momento quedó sana su hija (Mateo 15:28). El mensaje de la Palabra de Dios supone que debemos de aprender algo y ponerlo en práctica de inmediato: revisar nuestra actitud y la forma en que tratamos a los demás, especialmente a quienes consideramos diferentes por ser inmigrantes, de otro país o de otra cultura. Jesús cambia su actitud ante la petición de la mujer y, además, la enaltece por su gran fe. ¿Qué me enseña ese cambio? Pidamos al Señor que nos ayude a ser mejores y a tener un corazón más abierto, capaz de respetar y aceptar a las personas que piensan y actúan de manera diferente a nosotros.

Praying for one another is an important tradition in our Catholic faith communities. Here we list those who are presently in need of prayers, either for healing and restored health or for the peaceful repose of the souls of those who have recently passed into eternal life. In order to keep the information current, we will list the names submitted for four weeks only. If the need still exists for the listing of those who are ill, please give us a call or send an email and we will gladly include the name again. To contact us, please call Mary Hitzeman in the Parish Office at 951-676-8136, or send an email to mhitzeman@sbdiocese.org.

Orar unos por otros es una tradición importante en nuestras comunidades de fe católica. Aquí presentamos a quienes actualmente necesitan oraciones, ya sea por sanación y recuperación de la salud o por el eterno descanso de quienes han fallecido recientemente y han pasado a la vida eterna.

Para mantener la información actualizada, incluiremos los nombres enviados por dos semanas solamente. Si aún existe la necesidad de mantener en la lista a quienes están enfermos, por favor llámenos o envíenos un correo electrónico y con gusto incluiremos el nombre nuevamente.

Para comunicarse con nosotros, por favor llame a Mary Hitzeman en la Oficina Parroquial al 951-676-8136, o envíe un correo electrónico a mhitzeman@sbdiocese.org

Heavenly Father, we bring before you those who have passed. We thank you for their lives and the love they shared. Grant them peace in your presence and bring comfort to those who grieve, trusting in your promise of eternal life. Amen

Faith Formation

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

Thank you, everyone!

We would like to thank everyone who participated in the Altar Server Training. We are grateful for the wonderful response from the young people and families who have accepted the call to serve in this ministry.

A special thank you to our Masters of Ceremonies for their time, dedication, and support in helping train our new altar servers.

If your son or daughter is interested in becoming part of this beautiful ministry, we invite you to reach out.

FAMILY FAITH CHALLENGE

Pray, Trust, and Encourage

This week, gather as a family and share one prayer intention each evening. After each person shares, respond together:

"Jesus, we trust in You."

Throughout the week, encourage one another not to give up when facing challenges. Just as the Canaanite woman trusted Jesus with unwavering faith, remind each other that God hears every prayer and is always with us.

Family Reflection:

When was a time God answered one of your prayers, even if it wasn't in the way you expected?

Gospel Corner

Matthew 15:21-28

"Woman, great is your faith!"

In this Sunday's Gospel, a Canaanite woman refuses to give up when she asks Jesus to heal her daughter. Even when faced with obstacles, she continues to trust Him with humility and confidence. Jesus praises her great faith and grants her request.

This Gospel reminds us that God hears every sincere prayer. Faith means trusting in God's love, even when answers don't come right away. Like the Canaanite woman, we are called to persevere in prayer, show humility, and believe that nothing is impossible for God.

Saint of the Week

Saint Rocco

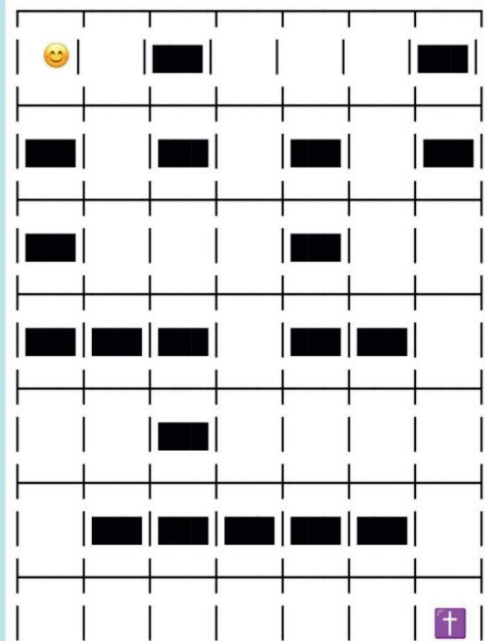

- Patron saint of dogs, plague victims, pilgrims, and those suffering from knee or leg ailments.
- Left behind a life of wealth to become a pilgrim, dedicating himself to serving the poor and the sick.
- Courageously cared for victims of the plague, often praying over them and witnessing miraculous recoveries.

- After contracting the plague himself, he withdrew to the forest, where tradition says a faithful dog brought him bread each day and licked his wounds until he recovered.
- Is invoked for healing, protection from illness, and strength during times of suffering.
