WORDS FROM OUR SHEPHERD

FR. TIMOTHY

Have you ever noticed the three small linen items used during Mass—the square cloth spread on the altar, the narrow cloth used to wipe the chalice, and the stiff square cover placed on top of the chalice—and wondered why the priest uses all of them together? These items are called the corporal, purificator, and pall. Though simple in appearance, they serve important purposes in showing reverence for the Holy Eucharist.

The Corporal: Preparing a Sacred Place

The corporal is a clean, square linen cloth spread upon the altar before the chalice and paten are placed upon it. It marks the sacred space where the Eucharist will be consecrated. By carefully unfolding the corporal, the priest prepares the altar for the holy mystery that is about to take place. The corporal also serves another important purpose.

The Church teaches that even the smallest fragment of the consecrated Host must be treated with the greatest reverence, for Christ is fully present even in the smallest particle. Should any fragment fall during the celebration of Mass, the corporal helps ensure that it is respectfully gathered and cared for.

The Purificator: Caring for the Sacred Vessels

The purificator is the narrow linen cloth used by the priest or deacon to wipe the rim of the chalice after Communion and to dry the sacred vessels during their purification after Mass. This careful attention reflects the Church's love and respect for the vessels that have held the Body and Blood of Christ. The purificator is a sign of careful respect.

The Pall: Protecting the Precious Blood

The pall is the square cover, usually wrapped in white cloth, that rests on top of the chalice during Mass. Its practical purpose is simple but important: it protects the Precious Blood from dust, insects, or anything else that might fall into the chalice, especially in churches where doors or windows may be open. Beyond its practical use, the pall also symbolizes reverence and dignity. Covering the chalice reminds us that what it contains is holy and worthy of honor. It reflects the Church's long tradition of treating sacred things with care and devotion. The pall is both a protection of the sacred and a visible sign of honor.

The corporal, purificator, and pall each have their own role, yet together they help maintain reverence, order, and dignity at the altar. The corporal prepares the sacred space and safeguards the Eucharist, the purificator cleanses the sacred vessels, and the pall protects the Precious Blood. Together, they form a quiet system of sacred care that supports the worthy celebration of the Holy Mass. As Saint Paul reminds us: "Everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way." (1 Corinthians 14:40)

In the end, these sacred linens may appear to be simple cloths, but they carry profound meaning. They protect the Eucharist, preserve dignity in worship, and express the Church's deep faith in the Real Presence of Christ. They gently remind us that at Mass, even the smallest details are treated with great reverence, because they serve the great mystery of Christ's presence among us.

PALABRAS DE NUESTRO PASTOR
PADRE TIMOTHY

¿Alguna vez ha notado los tres pequeños lienzos que se utilizan durante la Misa —el paño cuadrado que se extiende sobre el altar, el paño estrecho que se usa para limpiar el cáliz y la cubierta cuadrada y rígida que se coloca sobre el cáliz— y se ha preguntado por qué el sacerdote utiliza todos ellos juntos? Estos objetos se llaman el corporal, el purificador y la palia. Aunque son sencillos en apariencia, cumplen funciones importantes para expresar la reverencia hacia la Sagrada Eucaristía.

El Corporal: Preparando un Lugar Sagrado

El corporal es un lienzo cuadrado y limpio que se extiende sobre el altar antes de colocar sobre él el cáliz y la patena. Marca el espacio sagrado donde la Eucaristía será consagrada. Al desplegar cuidadosamente el corporal, el sacerdote prepara el altar para el santo misterio que está a punto de celebrarse. El corporal también cumple otra función importante. La Iglesia enseña que incluso el fragmento más pequeño de la Hostia consagrada debe ser tratado con la mayor reverencia, pues Cristo está plenamente presente incluso en la partícula más pequeña. Si durante la celebración de la Misa cayera algún fragmento, el corporal ayuda a garantizar que sea recogido y tratado con respeto.

El Purificador: Cuidando los Vasos Sagrados

El purificador es el paño estrecho que utiliza el sacerdote o el diácono para limpiar el borde del cáliz después de la Comunión y para secar los vasos sagrados durante su purificación después de la Misa. Esta atención cuidadosa refleja el amor y el respeto de la Iglesia por los vasos que han contenido el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. El purificador es un signo de respeto y cuidado.

La Palia: Protegiendo la Preciosa Sangre

La palia es la cubierta cuadrada y rígida, generalmente recubierta de tela blanca, que se coloca sobre el cáliz durante la Misa. Su propósito práctico es sencillo pero importante: proteger la Preciosa Sangre del polvo, de los insectos o de cualquier otra cosa que pudiera caer dentro del cáliz, especialmente en iglesias donde las puertas o ventanas permanecen abiertas. Más allá de su utilidad práctica, la palia también simboliza reverencia y dignidad. Cubrir el cáliz nos recuerda que lo que contiene es santo y digno de honor. Refleja la larga tradición de la Iglesia de tratar las cosas sagradas con cuidado y devoción.

La palia es a la vez una protección de lo sagrado y un signo visible de honor.

El corporal, el purificador y la palia tienen cada uno su propia función, pero juntos ayudan a mantener la reverencia, el orden y la dignidad en el altar. El corporal prepara el espacio sagrado y protege la Eucaristía; el purificador limpia los vasos sagrados; y la palia protege la Preciosa Sangre. Juntos forman un silencioso sistema de cuidado sagrado que favorece la celebración digna de la Santa Misa. Como nos recuerda San Pablo: «Todo debe hacerse de manera digna y ordenada.» (1 Corintios 14,40)

Al final, estos lienzos sagrados pueden parecer simples piezas de tela, pero poseen un profundo significado. Protegen la Eucaristía, preservan la dignidad del culto y expresan la profunda fe de la Iglesia en la Presencia Real de Cristo.

Praying for one another is an important tradition in our Catholic faith communities.
Here we list those who are presently in need of prayers, either for healing and restored health or for the peaceful repose of the souls of those who have recently passed into eternal life.
In order to keep the information current, we will list the names submitted for four weeks only. If the need still exists for the listing of those who are ill, please give us a call or send an email and we will gladly include the name again. To contact us, please call Mary

Orar unos por otros es una tradición importante en nuestras comunidades de fe católica. Aquí presentamos a quienes actualmente necesitan oraciones, ya sea por sanación y recuperación de la salud o por el eterno descanso de quienes han fallecido recientemente y han pasado a la vida eterna.

Para mantener la información actualizada, incluiremos los nombres enviados por dos semanas solamente. Si aún existe la necesidad de mantener en la lista a quienes están enfermos, por favor llámenos o envíenos un correo electrónico y con gusto incluiremos el nombre nuevamente.

Family Faith Challenge

Matthew 18:21-35
The Gift of Forgiveness

Jesus reminds us that forgiveness isn't something we give only once. It is a gift we are called to keep giving, just as God continually forgives us.

As a family, choose ONE person or situation that needs forgiveness. Spend time praying together and ask Jesus to help you let go of anger, hurt, or resentment.

Pray the Our Father together, paying special attention to: "Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us."

Talk about a time when someone showed you forgiveness.

Take one small step toward reconciliation—say "I'm sorry," "I forgive you," or simply pray for someone who has hurt you.

Remember: Forgiveness doesn't mean pretending that hurt never happened. It means choosing to place the situation in God's hands and making room for His peace.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint John Chrysostom

- He earned the name Chrysostom, meaning "Golden-Mouthed," because of his powerful preaching.
- As a priest, he dedicated himself to preaching the Gospel and helping the poor.
- He boldly challenged corruption and reminded people to live according to Christ's teachings.
- Courageous in Faith: John spoke the truth, even when it meant standing against powerful people.
- He was exiled because of his preaching but remained faithful to God.
- He is remembered for his powerful teachings and writings, inspiring us to speak the truth, serve others, and live our faith boldly.

COORDINATOR OF CONFIRMATION & YOUTH MINISTRY

Thank you Gracias

Thank-you to all our Faith Formation volunteers who recently gathered for our two-part CALLED volunteer formation meetings. We prayed together, strengthened our community, reflected on our call to serve, and prepared our hearts for the new formation year.

Most importantly, we thank each of you for your "yes" to serving Christ and His Church. Your time, gifts, patience, and presence make a difference in the lives of the children, youth, adults, and families entrusted to our care.

As we begin this new year, may we remember: We are called by Christ, formed in community, and sent to serve. Please continue to keep our Faith Formation community in your prayers! Thank you!

¡Gracias a todos nuestros voluntarios de Formación en la Fe que recientemente se reunieron para nuestras reuniones de formación para voluntarios CALLED, en dos partes. Oramos juntos, fortalecimos nuestra comunidad, reflexionamos sobre nuestro llamado a servir y preparamos nuestros corazones para el nuevo año de formación.

Más que nada, queremos agradecer a cada uno de ustedes por su "sí" a servir a Cristo y a Su Iglesia.

Su tiempo, sus dones, su paciencia y su presencia hacen una gran diferencia en la vida de los niños, jóvenes, adultos y familias que han sido confiados a nuestro cuidado.

Al comenzar este nuevo año, recordemos: Somos llamados por Cristo, formados en comunidad y enviados a servir.

¡Por favor, continúen teniendo presente en sus oraciones a nuestra comunidad de Formación en la Fe! ¡Muchas gracias!
