Mission Statement

By promoting the teachings of Jesus, St. Catherine of Alexandria welcomes all people to share in our blessed sacraments to strengthen and inspire our faith, to bring all closer in relationship to Jesus and creating friendship and unity in ethnic groups and committees as we walk in His footsteps daily.

La declaración de la misión

Al promover las enseñanzas de Jesús, Santa Catalina de Alejandría da la bienvenida a todas las personas a compartir nuestros santos sacramentos para ortalecer e inspirar nuestra fe, para acercar a todos a Jesús y crear una amistad y unidad en grupos étnicos y comités mientras caminamos en sus pasos todos los días.

WORDS FROM OUR SHEPHERD
FR. TIMOTHY

What Is the Communion of Saints?

In the Catholic faith, the Communion of Saints means that all who belong to Christ are united with one another in Him through the life of the Holy Spirit. This communion includes not only those of us living on earth, but also the saints who enjoy eternal happiness in heaven and the faithful departed who are undergoing purification. It means we are one family in Christ, and death does not destroy the communion we share in that family.

The Church describes this mystery through three groups of people who belong to Christ:
+ The Pilgrim Church: All of us living on earth, journeying in faith, struggling against sin, and striving to grow in holiness each day.
+ The Church Being Purified: Those who have died in God's grace but still need purification to attain the holiness necessary to enter the fullness of heaven.
+ The Triumphant Church: The saints who enjoy eternal happiness in the presence of God.
These three groups are not separated from one another. They remain united in Christ, the Head of the Church and the source of life for all of us.

How Do We Share in This Communion?
+ First, we pray for one another. During our lives, we pray for our families, friends, and those experiencing difficulties. When someone dies, our love does not end. We continue to pray for the faithful departed, offer Masses for them, and perform other acts of devotion, entrusting them to God's mercy.
+ Second, we ask the saints to intercede for us. The saints in heaven are not strangers to us. We can ask them to pray for us, just as we might ask a family member or friend to pray for us. We do not worship the saints; we honor them and turn to God through their intercession.
+ Third, we share in the life of Christ. When someone lives a holy life filled with love and sacrifice, that person's life benefits the whole Church. Through our prayers, forgiveness, and charitable works, we help build up the communion we share in God's family.

The Communion of Saints reminds us that love does not end when someone dies. When we visit the graves of our parents, grandparents, or other loved ones, we do more than remember cherished moments from the past. We also pray for them, placing our hope in God's mercy and the promise of eternal life. When we request Masses for the faithful departed, we express our love and spiritual responsibility toward those who have gone before us. When we help the poor, visit the sick, and forgive those who have hurt us, we put our communion in Christ into practice.

At the same time, this mystery reminds us not to wait until our loved ones have died to express our love. Let us love, forgive, and reconcile with one another while we still have the opportunity.
Saint Paul reminds us: "If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy" (1 Corinthians 12:26). The Communion of Saints teaches us that we are never alone on our journey of faith. We are strengthened by one another's prayers, supported by the intercession of the saints, and called to pray for those who have died. Together, we journey toward one ultimate goal: to be united with God in the fullness of His eternal love.

PALABRAS DE NUESTRO PASTOR
PADRE TIMOTHY
¿Qué es la Comunión de los Santos?

En la fe católica, la Comunión de los Santos significa que todos los que pertenecen a Cristo están unidos entre sí en Él por la vida del Espíritu Santo. Esta comunión incluye no solo a quienes vivimos en la tierra, sino también a los santos que gozan de la felicidad eterna en el cielo y a los fieles difuntos que están siendo purificados.

Esto significa que somos una sola familia en Cristo, y que la muerte no destruye la comunión que compartimos en esa familia.

La Iglesia describe este misterio a través de tres grupos de personas que pertenecen a Cristo:

La Iglesia peregrina: Todos nosotros que vivimos en la tierra, caminamos en la fe, luchamos contra el pecado y nos esforzamos por crecer cada día en santidad.

La Iglesia purgante: Aquellos que han muerto en la gracia de Dios, pero que todavía necesitan ser purificados para alcanzar la santidad necesaria y entrar en la plenitud del cielo.

La Iglesia triunfante: Los santos que gozan de la felicidad eterna en la presencia de Dios.

Estos tres grupos no están separados unos de otros. Permanecen commun en Cristo, Cabeza de la Iglesia y commun de vida para todos nosotros.

¿Cómo participamos en esta communion?

+ Primero, oramos unos por otros. Durante nuestra vida, oramos por nuestras familias, nuestros amigos y quienes atraviesan dificultades. Cuando alguien muere, nuestro amor no termina. Seguimos orando por los fieles difuntos, ofreciendo misas por ellos y realizando otras prácticas de piedad, confiándolos a la misericordia de Dios.

+ Segundo, pedimos la intercesión de los santos. Los santos que están en el cielo no son extraños para nosotros. Podemos pedirles que oren por nosotros, así como podemos pedir a un familiar o amigo que rece por nosotros. No adoramos a los santos; los veneramos y acudimos a Dios por medio de su intercesión.

+ Tercero, compartimos la vida de Cristo. Cuando alguien vive una vida santa, llena de amor y sacrificio, su vida beneficia a toda la Iglesia. Por medio de nuestras oraciones, el perdón y las obras de caridad, contribuimos a fortalecer la comunión que compartimos en la familia de Dios.

La Comunión de los Santos nos recuerda que el amor no termina cuando alguien muere. Cuando visitamos las tumbas de nuestros padres, abuelos u otros seres queridos, hacemos más que recordar los momentos entrañables del pasado. También oramos por ellos, poniendo nuestra esperanza en la misericordia de Dios y en la promesa de la vida eterna.

Cuando encargamos misas por los fieles difuntos, expresamos nuestro amor y nuestra responsabilidad espiritual hacia quienes nos han precedido. Cuando ayudamos a los pobres, visitamos a los enfermos y perdonamos a quienes nos han herido, ponemos en práctica nuestra comunión en Cristo.

Al mismo tiempo, este misterio nos recuerda que no debemos esperar hasta que nuestros seres queridos hayan fallecido para expresarles nuestro amor. Amémonos, perdonémonos y reconciliémonos unos con otros mientras todavía tengamos la oportunidad.

San Pablo nos recuerda: «Si un miembro sufre, todos los demás sufren con él; si un miembro es honrado, todos los demás comparten su alegría» (1 Corintios 12,26). La Comunión de los Santos nos enseña que nunca estamos solos en nuestro camino de fe. Nos fortalecemos con las oraciones de unos por otros, contamos con la intercesión de los santos y estamos llamados a orar por quienes han fallecido. Juntos caminamos hacia una única meta: estar plenamente unidos a Dios en la plenitud de su amor eterno.

BRING THE HOLY EUCHARIST TO THE HOMEBOUND

SHARE THE GIFT OF JESUS WITH THOSE WHO CANNOT JOIN US AT MASS

Do you feel called to serve our parish community in a special way? We invite you to become a Minister of Holy Communion to the Homebound, bringing the gift of the Holy Eucharist to parishioners who are unable to attend Mass due to illness, age, or limited mobility.

Your visit is more than bringing Communion—it is an opportunity to share Christ's love, offer comfort, and remind our homebound parishioners that they remain an important part of our parish family.

Help bring Jesus to those who cannot come to Him.

If you are interested in this beautiful ministry, please contact Mary at the parish office for more information at 951 676 8136.

Training will be provided November 28 at 9 a.m.in the Front of Di Leo Hall. Please Let Mary know if you would like to attend.

Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini (1850-1917) soñaba con ser misionera. Primero atendió a poblaciones de inmigrantes italianos, desde Nueva York hasta Chicago, y en todo Estados Unidos. Es la primera ciudadana de los Estados Unidos en ser canonizada y es la Patrona Universal de los Inmigrantes.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850 –1917) dreamed of being a missionary. She first served Italian immigrant populations, from New York to Chicago, and across the U.S. She is the first United States citizen to be canonized and is the Universal Patron of Immigrants.

San Lorenzo Ruiz Celebration on September 25, 2026

San Lorenzo Ruiz's last words were:
"I am a Catholic and wholeheartedly do accept death for God; had I a thousand lives, all these to Him shall I offer."
Latin translation: "Ego Catholicus sum et animo prompto paratoque pro Deo mortem obibo. Si mille vitas haberem, cunctas ei offerrem."
He spoke these words in September 1637 in Nagasaki, Japan,while enduring severe torture and execution by the Tokugawa shogunate for refusing to renounce his Christian faith.
He is recognized as the first Filipino saint and protomartyr of the Philippines.
